

Johan Lundin (SE) is an artist producing performative productions, video and installation in the thematic of identity, gender and its relation to social structures.